Officer of the Month: Officer McDermott has been selected as Officer of the Month for June. He was nominated by his supervisor for his efforts combatting the ongoing issues in the area of South Cannon Avenue. In the month of June, he wrote seven criminal citations for trespassing, made one CDS arrest, served four arrest warrants and four criminal summonses. Officer McDermott took this initiative on his own. The Hagerstown Police Department is proud to have members such as Officer McDermott who help make the community safer with proactive efforts. Residents in this area have grown frustrated with the quality of life issues surrounding them. We are pleased to recognize his efforts regarding this particular area in the city and his selection as Officer of the Month.
