PRESS RELEASE - August 17, 2016

Hagerstown MD - At 6:20 pm Tuesday August 16, 2016 the Hagerstown City Fire Marshal was requested to respond to the 200 blk of Nottingham Road after Hagerstown Police officers handling a domestic incident discovered what appeared to be military ordinances in a house. A response by the Maryland State Fire Marshal Bomb Squad was requested and the area of the items was secured until the items could be removed safely.

The State Fire Marshal Bomb Squad removed the items from the home without incident. They will be continuing their investigation into the origin of the devices.

No evacuation of the area was necessary and no injuries occurred during the incident. All City Fire Marshal units and State Fire Marshal Bomb Squad units had cleared the scene by 1am.
