PRESS RELEASE

October 6, 2016

Hagerstown City Fire Marshals have charged a 32 year old male for setting a dumpster on fire Wednesday evening to the rear of the Dual Highway Liquors, 350 Dual Highway in Hagerstown.

At about 6:55 pm, fire department units responding to another fire reported seeing a dumpster burning to the rear of the business. Additional units arrived to find a dumpster heavily involved in fire. Hagerstown City Fire Marshal's responded and determined the fire had been intentionally set on fire. During their interviews of witnesses and review of video from area cameras, John R. Wolfe of Waynesboro PA was identified as a person alleged to be seen setting a fire in the dumpster. Wolfe was later located in the area. Wolfe was charged with one count each of Arson of a Trash Container, Malicious Burning, 2nd degree, and Malicious Destruction of Property less than $1,000.
